

I listen to K-Love radio on a daily basis and it brightens my day. To think that it will be taken off the air is a disservice. There are many people who need the encouraging words to uplift them on days that are hard. I believe it is in the public interest to keep K-Love on the air.